

Call upon Performing Musicians & Lecturers for Recordings and Texts

towards participation in events in Terezín in August 2018

The recently founded Terezín Composers Institute (TCI) is organizes events which will take place in Terezín (Czech Republic) in August 2018. These are:

- Two concert matinées devoted to works of the Terezin composers
- A 3-day event for youth which will include lecture presentation on the subject matter of musical creativity and activity in Terezín during the ghetto times

The TCI is pleased to announce the call upon performing musicians and lecturers, who are interested in participating in these events.

Performing musicians are requested to send recordings of themselves (professional or domestic, audio or video) performing music pieces of the Terezín composers. Please, attach to the recordings accompanying information: names of performers, venue and date of recording, details of the works performed. The recordings which will be received will enable the TCI to select performing musicians and ensembles to present a program in the concert matinées.

Lecturers (musicologists, educators, artists) are requested to submit recordings (professional or domestic, audio or video) of themselves addressing in public a presentation on an any aspect of the subject matter "music in Terezin 1941-1945". Lecture manuscripts and presentations will also be gladly accepted. Please, attach to the materials some accompanying information: name of the lecturer, title of the lecture, venue and date of presentation, information regarding the forum and audience. The TCI will select lectures and presentations from those received, to be presented during the August 2018 event.
